

Are you the next City of Trees trustee?

City of Trees, the community forest charity for Greater Manchester, is growing and we're on the look-out for a passionate and committed trustee to join us on our journey. We're seeking an individual from the finance sector, to join our group of existing trustees.

What matters most to us at City of Trees is Greater Manchester. We're here for a greener city region, planting more trees for a happier and healthier GM, so if you're passionate about all things Greater Manchester and have financial acumen, we would love to hear from you.

The ideal trustee will have the following and we will look at these areas when assessing if you are suitable for this particular role:

- Commitment to the aims and work of City of Trees
- Relevant professional or volunteer experience in the financial sector
- Willingness to devote the time and effort to the role, including attending quarterly board meetings and any committee meetings as appropriate
- Ability to think strategically
- Ability to come to an independent and objective judgment
- Understanding and acceptance of the legal duties, responsibilities and liability of trusteeship
- Ability to work effectively as a member of a team
- Ability to contribute specific knowledge or experience about City of Trees field of work or the practice of running an organisation

If this sounds like you and would like to know more, please email team@cityoftrees.org.uk with some outline information on why you're interested in becoming a trustee. Those shortlisted will be invited to an informal meeting to learn more about each other.

Please note, applications will reviewed on a rolling basis as they are received.
